

It is my understanding that Sorenson produce the Dlink device and they won't allow VRS providers to write their own firmware. I think it is violated our rights. Is there a way for us to make Sorenson to allow other VRS providers to write their own firmware?